Letter from the President & CEO

The Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County (CBICC) is proud to serve as Centre County's leading economic development organization and advocate for the business community. As a nonprofit membership organization, CBICC convenes key stakeholders to shape a prosperous future for our region.

In October 2024, we launched Centre County's Economic Development Strategic Plan — a community-led roadmap for smart economic growth in our region. This plan is the first of its kind in over 20 years and includes input from over 150 interviews and conversations with leaders and members of our community. The plan identifies key industries, workforce development needs, infrastructure investments and placemaking strategies that will shape our county's economic future. CBICC is honored to lead the implementation of this vision in collaboration with public- and private-sector partners.

Our diverse and growing membership includes more than 740 businesses and organizations, representing over 80,000 professionals across industry sectors. Together, we're creating momentum by fostering innovation, supporting entrepreneurship and cultivating a business environment where companies can thrive and residents can build meaningful lives outside of work.

Whether you're looking to start a business, relocate, invest or simply explore all that Centre County has to offer, we invite you to join us. The Chamber is here to connect you with opportunities, resources and a vibrant network of collaborators committed to our collective future.

We hope this guide gives you a glimpse into what makes Centre County so special, and inspires you to be part of our continued success.

Sincerely,

Greg Scott
President & CEO

Mission: The Chamber of Business and Industry of Centre County (CBICC) promotes the well-being and growth of commerce, business and industry, while striving to maintain a high quality of life in Centre County.

Vision Statement: CBICC is committed to fostering a thriving business community and driving regional economic growth. Through strategic leadership, advocacy for business-friendly policies and strong local relationships, CBICC empowers and connects local businesses and serves as Centre County's "Voice of Business."

Licenses for Field & Stream

Centre County is a mecca for hunting and fishing. General hunting licenses are $20.97 for adults, $101.97 for nonresident adults and $13.97 for resident seniors. Youth ages 12 to 16 can buy a junior license for $6.97 if they've completed hunter-safety classes. Additional licenses are needed for bear, antlerless deer and certain other types of hunting. You can buy a license through the Pennsylvania Game Commission (huntfish.pa.gov) or at sporting-goods stores.

Black Moshannon State Park

If you're 16 or older, you must have a license to fish in Pennsylvania. Licenses are $27.97 for residents, $14.47 for senior residents and $60.97 for nonresidents. Visitors can buy a seven-day license for $39.47 or a three-day license for $31.97. If you're fishing for trout, you'll pay an extra $14.97. Licenses are sold through the Fish and Boat Commission (huntfish.pa.gov), county treasurer's office and sporting-goods stores. Rates are subject to change.

State Forests

pa.gov/agencies/dcnr

Bald Eagle

Bald Eagle State Forest, named for the famous Native American Chief Bald Eagle, includes 194,602 acres.

Moshannon

Moshannon State Forest derives its name from "Moss-hanne," or "moose stream," the description of the waterway that runs through the area. The forest totals 190,031 acres on the Allegheny Plateau.

Rothrock

Rothrock State Forest is named for Dr. Joseph Trimble Rothrock, a native of Mifflin County and the commonwealth's first forestry commissioner. He is recognized as the "Father of Forestry" in Pennsylvania. Rothrock State Forest comprises 96,975 acres.

Sproul

Sproul State Forest was named in memory of William C. Sproul, governor of Pennsylvania from 1919 to 1923, and is located in north central Pennsylvania. The largest in the state forest system, Sproul covers 305,450 acres.

Physiographic Regions

Allegheny Plateau

The northwestern half of Centre County, the Allegheny Plateau, is a forested high plateau divided by deep valleys and fast-moving streams. Despite the richness of its timber stands and the early discovery of coal, the plateau's rugged foothills north of Bald Eagle Creek discouraged westward-bound settlement and remained sparsely settled throughout much of the nineteenth century.

Ridge and Valley

The southeastern ridge and valley half of Centre County, made up of forested sandstone ridges and gently rolling limestone valleys, is framed by Bald Eagle Ridge to the north and Seven Mountains to the south. The eastern slope is cut by Spring Creek and the western slope is cut by Spruce Creek. The discovery of high-quality iron ore brought settlement to this region, as did the richness of its agricultural land.

Four Seasons in Centre County

In Centre County, we enjoy the best of all seasons. Our winters, typically cold with moderate snowfall, usually yield six snowstorms, each with more than four inches of snow. Our springs generally start in early April as the first warm southwest wind moves in across the valley. Summers are beautiful, with warm and moderately humid days. We usually have a spell of hot weather in mid-July. Many here believe the fall season is our best, as deciduous trees turn magnificent colors and the days trend sunny and mild.

Personal Taxes

All 35 municipalities assess an earned-income tax of 1% to 2.35%.

County homeowners pay a 7.84-mill real estate tax, plus one of the following rates to their resident school district:

Bald Eagle	60.95
Bellefonte	54.3495
Keystone Central	46.28
Penns Valley	51.4177
Philipsburg-Osceola	60.57
State College	50.9228
Tyrone	29.02

Additional real estate taxes range from zero mills in Rush and Burnside townships to 22.880 mills in State College. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania charges a 1% realty transfer tax (collected from the purchaser) and most municipalities charge another 1% (collected from the seller), the proceeds of which are shared between the school district and the municipality.

Pennsylvania has a 6% sales tax. Exempt items include food and clothing.

Residents of Pennsylvania pay a flat 3.07% state income tax.

Sewage

Centre County has numerous wastewater authorities. The University Area Joint Authority serves several State College area townships. uaja.com

Water

From early childhood through higher education, Centre County offers an abundance of high-quality educational opportunities. Many local institutions are CBICC members, economic drivers and essential talent pipelines. CBICC partners with school districts, colleges and technical training programs to ensure that our region's future workforce is well-prepared.

Education

Penns Valley Area School District

With a major land-grant university based in Centre County, it's no surprise that education is a priority here. Penn State provides academic, research and economic benefits to our region and inspires strong public, private and charter schools in kindergarten through 12th grade. Meanwhile, career and technical schools partner with local employers to educate tomorrow's workers.

MEMBER FDIC

CBICC's member community includes health care providers ranging from specialized therapeutics to large health systems serving the entire region. A strong health care sector supports holistic well-being and anchors Centre County as a great place to live and work.

Health Care

In health care, as in so many other parts of life, Centre County offers the best of both worlds: the friendly, caring attitude of small-town physicians and the state-of-the-art technology and treatment of big-city hospitals. Most county residents are pleased to find that they can get the quality care they need right here in the area.

Regional Care Centers

Geisinger

Type of Facility: Acute care; integrated health system.
Programs, Services and Clinics: One of the nation's leading fully integrated health service organizations; founded in 1915, serves 2.6 million residents throughout central and northeast Pennsylvania, offering primary and specialty care — cancer, cardiology, neurosciences, orthopedics, pediatrics, transplant, trauma, women's health and adult chemical dependency. Geisinger recently added a two-story outpatient clinic addition to its Healthplex and a new primary/urgent care site in Bellefonte.

CBICC collaborates with and convenes local, county and state leaders to advocate for policies and partnerships that support economic development. Good governance is the foundation for smart growth, and our members are active in shaping that future.

Government

Centre County Courthouse

Our county seat is Bellefonte, where a three-member board of commissioners looks out for the collective needs of the county. In the State College area, the Centre Region Council of Governments works on behalf of five municipalities on issues like planning, libraries and parks. However, most governing decisions in the county's 10 boroughs and 25 townships are handled by the individual municipalities.

The Ultimate Guide to Real Estate in Centre County

www.ccarinc.realtor | (814) 238 7622

From family farms to ag-tech innovators, agriculture remains a vital part of Centre County's economy and identity. CBICC members support food security, ensure land stewardship and cultivate the next generation of agricultural leaders through partnerships with youth programs like 4-H and FFA.

Agriculture

Agriculture has always been an essential part of Centre County's identity and continues to play a crucial role in our local economy. The county's rich farming heritage is evident everywhere you look, from Penn State University, originally chartered as the Farmer's High School in 1855 and Pennsylvania's sole land-grant institution and its largest public university, to the idyllic countryside, dotted with picturesque farms.

To celebrate and support local farmers, growers and producers, the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County and The Happy Valley Adventure Bureau launched Happy Valley Agventures. This joint initiative invites visitors and residents alike to discover the bounty of our region, from fresh produce to artisanal crafts.

Centre County is home to century farms that not only preserve Happy Valley's rural charm but also offer visitors unique and memorable experiences. From goat yoga to sunflower fields, fall hayrides and meteor-shower viewings, there's something for everyone.

At local farm stands, you can purchase a wide range of fresh produce and Amish baked goods. And if you're a foodie, you're in luck — many of Centre County's most popular restaurants feature locally sourced ingredients, resulting in innovative and delicious field-to-fork cuisine.

Our craft beverage trail is a must-visit for anyone looking to sample local flavors. You can enjoy beer, wine, cider and spirits, all made with locally sourced grapes, apples and other ingredients.

Cheese lovers will delight in the artisanal cheeses produced by our Amish community. You can find these delectable treats in gourmet food stores throughout the East Coast or visit farm stores right here in Centre County.

Whether you're admiring the beauty of apple blossoms in the spring or celebrating the bountiful harvest in the fall, there's no shortage of ways to explore Happy Valley's agricultural roots. Self-guided farm route driving tours make it easy to discover the many wonders of our region.

The Happy Valley Agventures website contains plenty of inspiration about all of the ag-related things to see and do in Centre County.

WHO WE ARE

DRIVING ECONOMIC GROWTH AND COMMUNITY PROSPERITY

At the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County, we're more than just an organization — we're a catalyst for positive change and sustainable growth in our community. Our mission is clear: to create momentum for the future by fostering a culture of excellence, nurturing strategic partnerships, and leading on issues crucial to economic development and long-term sustainability.

Our Commitment to Centre County:

- Cultivating Excellence: We strive for excellence in all that we do, setting high standards and encouraging innovation and continuous improvement among our members and partners.
- Facilitating Partnerships: Collaboration is at the heart of our approach. We work closely with other chambers, economic development organizations, and community stakeholders throughout the region to drive positive outcomes for Centre County and beyond.
- Addressing Critical Issues: The Centre County Economic Development Strategy, launched in October of 2024, outlines strategic actions to streamline resources, develop workforce, and strengthen community engagement across all sectors.
- Championing Growth: As a nonprofit membership organization, we champion Centre County's interests, lead discussions on economic and workforce development, and provide valuable resources and connections to help businesses and organizations thrive.

Our Vision:

We envision a vibrant and prosperous Centre County where businesses flourish, communities thrive, and residents enjoy an exceptional quality of life. Our belief in the power of collaboration drives us to unite business leaders, community stakeholders, and government officials to build a brighter future for all.

Join Us in Building a Better Tomorrow:

Together, we can achieve remarkable things. Join the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County today and be part of a dynamic community committed to driving economic growth, enhancing the well-being of our residents, and shaping a future filled with opportunity and prosperity.

ABOUT US

OUR RICH HERITAGE: BUILDING ON A LEGACY OF EXCELLENCE

Learn From The Past. Look To The Future. Since 1920.

For over a century, the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County (CBICC) has stood as a beacon of progress and prosperity in our community. Founded in 1920 through the merger of the State College Chamber of Commerce and the Centre County Industrial Development Corporation in 1992, CBICC has been dedicated to championing our shared communities and fostering business growth.

A Legacy of Collaboration:

The amalgamation of these esteemed organizations paved the way for a unified approach to economic development and community enhancement. Since then, CBICC has been at the forefront of driving positive change, convening leaders and influencers, and advocating for the collective interests of our region.

Our Corporate Entities:

Under the umbrella of CBICC, we manage three distinct corporate entities, each playing a crucial role in our overarching mission:

The Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County (CBICC): Our flagship 501(c)(6) membership organization, governed by a dynamic Board of Directors, serves as the heartbeat of our business community, offering invaluable resources and networking opportunities to our members.

Centre County Industrial Development Corporation (CCIDC): As our legal arm for economic development, CCIDC, a 501(c)(4) entity, is dedicated to promoting economic growth throughout Centre County. Through strategic partnerships and initiatives under the Centre County Economic Development Partnership (CCEDP), we foster entrepreneurial development, support business retention, and attract new investments to our region.

Chamber Foundation of Centre County: Our 501(c)(3) charitable organization focuses on economic development and education initiatives, providing vital support for CBICC/CCIDC professional and workforce development programs. Through charitable contributions, businesses and individuals alike can contribute to the advancement of our community while enjoying tax advantages.
